

Jose Hurtado

Age: 61

Occupation: College Counselor

My name is Jose Hurtado. I have been a counselor at Napa Valley College (NVC) for over 30 years. My commitment to the people of Napa is evident and longstanding. It is my wish to continue to serve the people of Napa. I will bring a balanced perspective, an experienced voice. I have proven leadership skills. I have the ability to bring people together. Through my work at the NVC and the boards I serve on, I have gotten an intimate look at what matters most to our community. And, I have the experience to put those priorities into practice.

I am currently an elected member of the Napa Valley Unified School District, first elected in 2004. I am on the board of Community Action Napa Valley. I was appointed the Napa Expo Fair Board. I was part of the first anti-gang violence taskforce, the "Health Care for the Poor" committee and several other civic groups and organizations.

I am married and have four children. Nancy and I still have one child at home. Napa is our home and I will work diligently to improve the quality of life for all our residents.
